Artisan Consignment Agreement

Thank You!

We are very happy you wish to consign with The Pickled Parrot. Here is how it works.

When you bring your items in, we will select what our customers are currently buying. Sometimes you may bring items we are unable to sell. Our customers' preferences will be our selection guidelines and will change from time to time.

Prices will be based on supply and demand. We will obtain the best possible prices for you.

Your items will be displayed for 3 months starting the day they are put on the floor. If you produce a "line" of products, and one particular item in that line has not sold during the 3 month consignment period, we reserve the right to pull that specific item. At that time, the pulled item can be replaced with a different item from your line.

Any pricing, markdowns or periodic sales are at the discretion of The Pickled Parrot. We understand you may have material or other expenses that need to be covered. With most artisan items, an agreed upon base or standard selling price can be established. We do ask you to specify an acceptable discount percentage to be applied to your items during periodic sales. Base or standard pricing along with acceptable discount percentages are to be described in detail in the notes section of this Artisan Consignment Agreement.

Once an item sells, 75% of the final selling price, less taxes, will be credited to your account. Come in any time for any money owed to you. We mail checks every month for any account balance that is over $25, just in case you haven't been in.

If you come in, you can collect your money via store credit, cash ($25 and under), or check (over $25). You will be required to present your Consignor Account Number and Personal ID to collect any money that is owed.

You may retrieve any unsold items within 14 days after the consignment expiration date. Call us ahead of time and we'll have them ready for you. Items not picked up within 14 days of their expiration date become the property of The Pickled Parrot. Initials: _____

We will do our best to safeguard your items but we are not responsible for any damage or loss.
